The Christ of the Prophets
By O. Palmer Robertson

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Analytical Outline
Introduction

1. The Origin of Prophetism in Israel
2. Prominent Aspects of Prophetism Related to Its Origin
3. The Prophet’s Call and Commission
4. Prophets True and False
5. Covenant and Law in the Proclamation of the Prophets
6. Prophetic Application of Law and Covenant
7. The Biblical-Theological Setting of Israel’s Literary Prophets
8. Prophetism prior to the Nation’s Exile: The Eighth-Century Prophets
9. Prophetism prior to the Nation’s Exile: The Seventh-Century Prophets
10. Prophetism During the Nation’s Exile: Ezekiel
11. Prophetism During the Nation’s Exile: Daniel
12. Prophets of the Restoration
13. Prediction in Prophecy
14. The Core Event of Israel’s Prophetic Movement

Conclusion
Bibliography
Index of Scripture and Ancient Texts
Index of Subjects and Names
Jesus Christ, the Prophet? by David Treybig. Many people know that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. But was He a prophet? If so, what key messages did He bring to us from God the Father? Moses said, “The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear” (Deuteronomy 18:15). Jesus Christ was that Prophet (graphic from VisualBibleAlive.com, Â© V. Gilbert & Arlisle F. Beers). In Moses’ parting words of instruction to the Israelites before his death and their entering the Promised Land, the highly venerated prophet delivered an intriguing prophecy. He told them: “The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear” (Deuteronomy 18:15, emphasis added throughout). The Lord Jesus Christ had three offices. They are Prophet, Priest and King. In what aspects was Jesus Christ a Prophet?

It is a common and received principle among all that are truly godly, that Jesus, and the Son of the Highest, stands in a capacity of King, Priest, and Prophet to his Church, and so is to be received by all that will on good grounds receive benefit by him. Having spoken somewhat of his Kingly and Priestly office, somewhat relating to him in respect of his Prophetic office, is hinted in the particulars following.

PROPHET. PARALLEL. A Prophet is a mouth to others, to speak forth what is the sense and mind of God to them: “And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet. All of this is the prophecy of Jesus Christ about the raising of us all. And, of course, the greatest prophecy, the raising to new life of the entire world, was Christ’s victory over death in His light-bearing Resurrection. In the Heavenly Kingdom answers will be given to our most difficult questions of the universe, just the soul of Nicodemus, which hungered and thirsted for higher truths, was prophetically filled.

Here is how the Lord, in Holy Scripture, replies not only to the almost desperate questioning of the Prophet Jeremiah, but to each one of us: Therefore thus said the Lord, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before Me; for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the Lord. Prophecies Detailing Christ’s Ministry in the Meridian of Time. This chart identifies many, but not all, of the scriptural passages that foretold the Messiah’s MinistrY before he came. In some instances, because of space limitations, a grouping combines related prophecies. Interested readers may examine the scriptures referenced and determine which prophet referenced a specific detail of the Savior’s atoning mission. His Birth. Prophecy. The Christ of the Prophet has been added to your Cart. Add a gift receipt for easy returns. Buy used Robertson looks at every angle of prophets and prophecy. His, in all sections, inclusion of Christ as the greatest of the Prophets thrills my heart and leads me to moments of praise/worship of the Great Savior and Lord I belong to. Read more. 4 people found this helpful.