Boyle & Birds' Company Law is a well-established leading textbook based on Gore-Browne on Companies. It combines a comprehensive and authoritative exploration of law and practice with an examination of the theoretical issues. The new edition has been completely updated to include changes relating to Case-law on members' rights, Case-law on the duties of shadow directors, Cases emphasising the continuing importance of equitable principles underlying the statutory statement of directors' duties, New case-law on the core directors' duties of proper purpose and good faith, the duty of care and skill and the consequences.
