THE ANDERSON COLLECTION OF ART NOUVEAU

Sir Colin and Lady Anderson were passionate about Art Nouveau and amassed a collection of furniture, jewellery, glass, ceramics, metal ware and graphics that embodied the new style that swept fin de siècle Europe and America.

They acquired the work of many of the leading exponents of Art Nouveau, including graphics by Alphonse Mucha, the furniture of Emile Gallé and Louis Majorelle, glass by Louis Comfort Tiffany, jewellery by René Lalique as well as works made for Liberty and Co by designers such as Archibald Knox. The Collection was given to the University of East Anglia in 1978.

This fully illustrated catalogue celebrates The Anderson Collection of Art Nouveau with over 70 colour images and features essays examining both the varied forms of the style and the artists and designers who made these remarkable works.
